

1. The sun makes you feel warm.	3. The primary method of heat transfer in a fluid.	5. You use a hot iron to get the wrinkles out of clothing.	7. A pinwheel over a candle starts to spin as a result of air movement.	9. Your tongue sticks to a cold metal pole.
2. Meat is heated in frying pan.	4. Smoke and hot air go up a chimney.	6. You keep your window open for ventilation.	8. Your feet get hot running across the beach sand on a sunny day.	10. The roof of your car gets hot in the sun.

11. On a bright, sunny day, the black pavement gets very hot.	13. It produces winds.	15. Water moves in a sauce pan when it is heated.	17. Your body is warmed by a sun lamp.	19. You get warm standing in front of a fireplace.
12. Transfer of heat by direct contact.	14. You cook a hotdog over a campfire. The hotdog does not touch the fire.	16. You use an electric blanket to get warm on a cold winter day.	18. Heat is transferred in water by currents.	20. The second floor of a house is usually hotter than the first floor.